Q1. Read the comprehension and answer the questions it follows.

The Darling family lived in London. The family included Mr. and Mrs. Darling, their three children – Wendy, John, and Michael – and their pet dog, Nana. The children often spoke about Peter Pan, a boy who never grew up. Peter would tell them stories about Neverland, a magical place with a lagoon and flying flamingoes.

One night, the children were asleep and Mrs. Darling was sitting in their room. Suddenly, the window flew open and a boy entered. He was followed by a tiny fairy. Mrs. Darling was shocked but knew right away that the boy was Peter Pan.

Later, Peter Pan met Wendy and spoke about his friend, Tinker Bell, the fairy. He had accidentally shut her inside a drawer. Peter told Wendy that he and the other lost boys lived in Neverland. These boys were once babies who fell out of their prams and were never claimed by their parents.
